INTENSIVE-IN-HOME SERVICES (IIC)

Intensive counseling services are flexible, comprehensive support that are clinical, client-centered and family-focused for those struggling with emotional/behavioral disruptions that result in significant functional impairment and maladaptive behaviors that place families and communities at risk.

Services are placed into action within an in-home/community environment focused on developing realistic treatment plans appropriate to the individual. This approach is to provide solution-based crisis interventions that target needs to strengthen families and diminish the intensity of undesirable behavior.

We integrate community resources pertinent to psychosocial maintenance and support to sustain effective development when families transition.

NURTURING PARENTING PROGRAMS/FACILITATORS

Winner counselors are Certified Nurturing Parenting Facilitators that implement prevention-education sessions with parents, designed to empower families with new knowledge, beliefs and strategies. NPP is a family-centered trauma-informed initiative designed to build nurturing parenting skills as an alternative to abusive and neglecting parenting and child-rearing practices. The long term goals are to prevent recidivism in families receiving social services, lower the rate of multi-parent teenage pregnancies, reduce the rate of juvenile delinquency and alcohol abuse, and stop the intergenerational cycle of child abuse by teaching positive parenting behaviors.

Winner recognizes that specific households need parenting programs integrated into family counseling. Parents obtain practical skills to communicate effectively, recuperate relationships, practice consistent functional discipline, increase positive parental involvement and foster improved behavior and mental health within home and community.

These programs offer a full menu of activity-based instruction designed to promote leadership skills and personal growth through team building retreats, interactive workshops, interaction with community leaders and business professionals as well as service learning activities.
